Today’s Readings: The First Reading tells how on being cured of leprosy Naaman (a Gentile) acknowledges Yahweh as the supreme and only God. That story prepares us for the Gospel account of the cure of ten lepers by Jesus, and of how only one of them, a foreigner, came back to thank him. The stranger puts the Jews to shame. The Second Reading contains a short summary of the Good News and tells of how faithfulness to Christ will bear us up even in crisis and distress. Pray the Psalm of God’s justice made real in the sight of all nations.

"The rosary is the book of the blind, where souls see and there enact the greatest drama of love the world has ever known; it is the book of the simple, which initiates them into mysteries and knowledge more satisfying than the education of other men; it is the book of the aged, whose eyes close upon the shadow of this world, and open on the substance of the next. The power of the rosary is beyond description."

[Archbishop Fulton Sheen]
