Celebrating the Funeral Liturgy

The Funeral Liturgy consists traditionally of three parts - - - (Part 1)

- ✚ Prayer Vigil at home or in the Funeral Home during which family, friends and members of the Christian Community gather to pray to God, hear the 'words of life eternal,' to see beyond this world, to express Christian solidarity.
- ✚ At the Reception of the Body at the Church, we use the symbols of what we believe about life and death, e.g., the Pall, the Gospels, the Crucifix, The Paschal Candle.
