BISHOP RAY BROWN’S LETTER to priests and laity this weekend includes the following ...

- ◆ I pay tribute to all our priests for their great service.
- ◆ This summer sees the situation of a sixth parish, Knocknagoshel, becoming a parish without a resident priest.
- ◆ I am confident that though we have fewer and fewer priests, we can continue to have the fullness of parish life everywhere - - - Please continue to pray for vocations to the priesthood in our diocese. God’s will be done.
- ◆ Soon it will not be possible to have a weekend Mass in every church of the diocese. This day is not far off - - - (when that day comes) and a local community finds this is the situation regarding their church; we will have some guiding principles.
  - (a) a priority is that the church area community continue as a separate faith community, with its own identity and its committees. Where appropriate, funeral Masses, Marriages, Baptisms, First Friday Masses will continue in that church.
  - (b) Parishioners will attend ‘Sunday Mass’ in neighbouring churches.

Mass will be in Kilmackilloge Cemetery on Friday next (7th July) at 8pm. All Welcome!
Carnegie Arts Centre: Summer Exhibition Launch, Fri 7th July at 7pm. Admission FREE!
