Wednesday, 1st November 2017 / All Saints Day ~ Holyday of Obligation

TODAY'S FEAST: think of the loved ones who inspired you with their lives and then be conscious of the many people being remembered around the world on this feast of All Saints.

- We remember these people and give thanks for them
- The Kingdom of heaven is a reality and it will come
- Canonisation ceremonies are for a few, but saintliness is for all
- Our Saints are the people who gave us the gift of faith.

- REASONS TO BELIEVE: THE WITNESS OF MIRACLES – DVD's presented by the Café Credo Group on Thursday, 2nd & 9th Nov. 7.30pm – 9pm in the Church Lodge.

NOVEMBER MASSES FOR THE HOLY SOULS: You will find a 'Purple Envelope' in your box of 'Parish Envelopes' together with a sheet to list the names of your deceased relatives & friends. Sheets & envelopes also available at the back of the church. Bring these envelopes to Mass and your loved ones will be especially remembered on the FEAST OF ALL SOULS (2nd Nov) and at all the NOVEMBER MASSES celebrated in the parish.

Holy Indulgences are about the healing of sins through Prayer, Penance and Holy Eucharist. We are bound to our deceased loved ones by the witness of faith and love that they have left us. As we remember them in the Eucharist, we can, in the mystery of the Communion of Saints.

Pray for them, that our merciful Father may free them of every fault and embrace them in endless happiness.

To gain an indulgence for the Souls of the Departed – from 12 noon on the 1st November until midnight on the 2nd November, confess your sins, receive Holy Communion and pray for the Pope's Intentions. Visit a church and recite there one Our Father, one Hail Mary and the Apostles' Creed.

Cemetery Masses

Mass at Holy Cross Cemetery, Crossroads, at 11.00am on Saturday, 4th November.
Mass at the Templenoe New Cemetery, at 11.00am on Saturday, 11th November.

We pray for the dead to ask God to purify them with His love and bring them to eternal happiness with Himself in heaven
