Today’s Scripture

1st Reading: We live in the present, but we live for the future, a future written in our hearts. The Lord plants his new covenant deep within his people’s hearts.

2nd Reading: Progress makes us better, but only Christ can make us perfect. Christ becomes the source of eternal salvation through the obedience of his earthly work.

Gospel: Some Greek pilgrims want to see Jesus, but instead, they are given his word. They hear a word that says ‘Jesus is glorified in his act of pouring himself out on our behalf.’

FR. TOM CREAN INVITES YOU TO A TALK ON THE THEME OF ...

‘Family Matters – Growing Love & Faith in a Modern Family’

This talk has been specially designed for the Kenmare Pastoral Area and will be given by Dr. Anne Francis, on Monday, 26th March, at 8pm in Pobalscoil Inbhear Scéine, Pope Francis and the Right to Life.

“Among the vulnerable for whom the church wishes to care with particular love and concern are unborn children, the most defenceless and innocent among us. Nowadays efforts are made to deny them their human dignity and to do with them whatever one pleases, taking their lives and passing laws preventing anyone from standing in the way of this.

... Precisely because this involves the internal consistency of our message about the value of the human person, the church cannot be expected to change her position on this question... It is not ‘progressive’ to try to resolve problems by eliminating a human life...”
