The Pope is Coming: Wonder what your thoughts on, and hopes for the visit of Pope Francis:

- Pope Francis has called on all Catholics to look on the world with 'a contemplative gaze.' May he teach us to look on everything with that 'contemplative gaze.'
- The purpose of his coming to Ireland is to highlight the importance of family life. May he freshen our sense of the preciousness of our own individual family. May he uplift the wider family of Church to be joyful good news-bearers.
- Pope Francis reaches out to all, particularly to the vulnerable and poor. May he inspire us to unite and promote family and community working together and be agents of healing.

Festival of Families - Croke Park, Dublin, Saturday, 25th August 2018, 6.30pm.

Pope Francis will attend and speak. The programme for this event includes some well-known and international artists joined by an orchestra of over 50 musicians and 700 dancers from across the country as well as 1,000 choir, 100 community groups and 300 flag bearers.

Tickets are free but few. A limited number of tickets have been made available to the Parish for this very special concert which celebrates families and their faith from all around the world.

If you would like to be there, call the Presbytery on 064 6641352, on Monday, 30th July, between 11.00am and 1.00pm.

- The Carnegie Players ... presents "STEEL MAGNOLIAS" this w/e 28th, 29th July and next Friday & Saturday, 3rd & 4th August at 8.00pm.
