Think of home and how to live there
 MODERATELY ‘to embrace the material things that God has created and apply self-discipline’
 ENTHUSIASTICALLY ‘to give thanks to the party’
 SPIRITUALLY ‘to acknowledge the holiness in everyday actions and events’

- Think of the house that is home as a little Holy place and the dining table as one of the holiest spots.
- Think of home and ways of parenting that are crucial to rearing children: Accept that they are both ordinary and unique.
- Teach them to honour their parents and respect others.
- Teach them to be resilient, self-reliant and courageous.
- Teach them to be grateful for their blessings.
- Teach them to value.
- Teach them to accept rules and exercise self-control.
- Teach them the preciousness of the present moment.
- Teach them about God.

Leaving Cert Students: Congratulations to all students who received their results last Wednesday; we wish you the best over these days of waiting and decision making.

Making Decisions Prayer:

Lord, I turn to you for help, that in your wisdom you might aid me in making the right decision.

I am unsure about what is best for me, and at times I hesitate to pray for guidance, not because I don’t believe, but because I know that if I am honest with myself and with you, I will be changed – and that change unsettles me.

I am comfortable now, and sometimes I am afraid of what you might be calling me to do.

Shake me from my comfort. When I doubt my ability to choose what is right, guide me in my discernment and point me in the direction you want me to go.

When I turn to you, I will always find the courage to choose faith, the strength to choose hope, the compassion to choose love.

I am not made or unmade by the things which happen to me but my reaction to them.
