Why pray for the dead?

Praying for the dead is an ancient practice. The Jewish Community was doing it two centuries before Christ; early Christians followed this practice.

The belief in the communion of saints is an acknowledgement that death doesn't break the bonds between us. The holy ones, in their concern, are praying for us and we in our concern, are praying for the less-than-holy-ones working out the details of their journey to total union with God.

Praying for the dead includes any good work performed for their intention. We can bless them in death as in life. Those who have gone before us need our prayers. And someday we will likely need theirs. [Alice L. Camille]

NOVEMBER MASS
for all who died in the parish in the past year, will be celebrated in HOLY CROSS CHURCH, KENMARE, on
Friday, 16th November, at 8.00pm.
Anyone who has had a bereavement in the past year is especially invited.

 Today's Scripture Readings	1st Reading	Moses tells the people that loving God unreservedly is their highest obligation.
	Psalm:	God is the rock upon which the believer finds strength and safety.
	2nd Reading:	Jesus is the greatest and final high priest who offers sacrifice once for all.
	Gospel:	Jesus tells us what the two most important of God's commandments are.
