Today's Sacred Scripture.

1st Reading: Jonah describes the prophet delivering a message of condemnation against the people of Nineveh. The people change their ways, repenting of their sins and fasting.

Psalm: God has loved us for a long time, and with mercy and kindness shows sinner the way. 2nd Reading: This world is passing – don't get too attached to the way things are. Gospel: Jesus goes fishing for disciples and catches four.

Questions to Ponder:

- If you lived in Nineveh, would you have listened to Jonah's preaching? Why?
- Have you taken time to discern your vocation?

Quote: Repentance is not an emotion. It is not feeling sorry for your sins. It is a decision. It is deciding that you have been wrong in supposing that you could manage your own life and be your own God.
