Rosary at Our Lady's Well

The Rosary is recited at OUR LADY'S WELL every evening at 7.30pm.

What a beautiful gift to give our Blessed Mother. Everyone welcome!

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known, that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence I fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To you do I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy, here and answer me. Amen.

Anniversary of Truce:

Today, 11th July, marks the 100th Anniversary of The Truce that ended the War of Independence in Ireland.

We are grateful this day for the gift of freedom and peace!

Today's Sacred Scripture:

1st Reading: The prophet Amos is faithful to the task God gave him, even though he is rejected by those to whom he is sent.

Psalm: Justice prepares the way of the Lord, and the land prospers.

2nd Reading: This is a hymn of thanksgiving to the God for the great spiritual gifts he has given us in Christ.

Gospel: Jesus sends out the twelve apostles in twos on their first mission without him, and without any visible means of support.

Questions to Ponder: • In what ways are you a prophet to those around you?

- What is your definition of holiness?
- If you are sent today, what would be your best skill or gift that you could use?

Message from Bishop Ray Browne

Dear Parishioner,

From this summer, the parish of Kilgarvan will no longer have a priest resident in the parish. The priests of Kenmare Pastoral Area will minister to the parish with one priest in the role of Moderator. Kilgarvan will continue to function as a separate parish.

The Diocesan Pastoral Team will support the parish and area in this time of transition. I offer you the people and priest of the area my support at this time.

May God watch over us all with his Fatherly care in these difficult Covid-19 times.

Yours sincerely, BISHOP RAY BROWNE.

Text from Bishop's House to parishes last Friday:

"Please note that the parishes of Kilgarvan, Ballydonoghue and Caherdaniel will be served by the priests of their Pastoral Areas as and from changes on 4th August."

Holiday Makers / Visitors

Welcome to this sacred time, whether it be a holiday time, a family visit time, or a time with friends.

We wish you peace and healthy fun and time with your family/friends. May you especially experience the God who is the source of true happiness and reconciliation with yourself and others. May you glimpse his fingerprint in the ocean, the sky, the mountains, and the whole of creation of this countryside, whatever the weather.

May you have an enjoyable stay around here. If you are a believer, say a prayer for all who live in this parish and who worship here.

No Offertory Collection taken up at Masses. Please use the baskets at exit doors for your offering!
