Mission Sunday ~ next weekend 24th October.
Overseas Missionaries are in urgent crisis.

In many of the poorer Parishes in Africa, Asia and Latin America, Missionaries are on the frontline continually. They are walking hand in hand in local communities long before any emergency.

Many of these Missionaries serve in remote regions where conflict, violence, extreme poverty, malnutrition, and diseases are sadly facts of life. Your financial support is vital to all who work in the Missions.

Please if you are able to help you can do so by placing an offering in an ordinary envelope or in the envelopes available at the back of the Churches which can be placed in the collection baskets at all Masses next weekend.

There is no OFFERTORY COLLECTION taken up during SUNDAY MASSES.
 There are baskets at exit doors of the church, where you may leave your offering.

ARCHBISHOP EAMON MARTIN and the other Church leaders in Ireland invite all people of goodwill to join them in prayer during the SERVICE OF REFLECTION AND HOPE which will be broadcast live from ST PATRICK'S CHURCH OF IRELAND CATHEDRAL, ARMAGH on RTE and BBC television networks on THURSDAY, 21 OCTOBER 2021 AT 11 A.M. The Church leaders see this service as a moment in a much longer journey towards reconciliation which will require the prayerful support and engagement of Christians across these islands. PLEASE PRAY WITH US FOR PEACE IN THE COMING DAYS

A Pastoral Message: The Synod of Bishops in Rome in Autumn 2023
And a 'Synodal Pathway' of five years in the Irish Church.

A synodal Church, in announcing the Gospel, "journeys together."

- How is this "journeying together" happening today in your local Church?
- What steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our "journeying together"?

Here in Ireland, there is an extra important dimension. What we do now for the Synod of Bishops in Rome will be the first phase of our own Synodal Pathway. For the next 5 years the whole Catholic Church in Ireland is seeking to travel a Synodal Pathway: journeying together, listening, and discussing, discerning together what the Holy Spirit is asking of us as the People of God. Hopefully this will bear fruit in the everyday life of our parish communities.

At the centre of all we do is the life-giving Trinity of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Christ invites us, "As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you, remain in my love". I ask everyone to unite in prayer in the months ahead for the success of this Synodal process, in Ireland and worldwide.

Pope Francis launched the Synod last weekend, and each diocese worldwide is launching it this weekend. The Kerry Diocesan launch will take place in St. Mary's Cathedral, Killarney, this weekend (17th Oct) at 3.00pm. The Liturgical Ceremony will take 40 minutes approx. You are invited to attend or to participate by live-streaming via the Killarney Parish website. Let us unite in prayer for the success of The Synodal Pathway.

A prayer in the time of Coronavirus

Almighty and All-loving God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we pray to you through Christ the Healer for those who suffer from the Coronavirus Covid-19 in Ireland and across the world.

Pray too for all who reach out to those who mourn the loss of each and every person who has died as a result of contracting the disease and comfort everyone in distress.

This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord who showed compassion to the outcast, acceptance to the rejected and love to those to whom no love was shown. Amen.
